

Pediatric Newborn Reading Curriculum

Newborn Nursery (4)	1	Breast Feeding	Breastfeeding in the perinatal period
			Common problems of breastfeeding in the postpartum period
			Maternal nutrition during lactation
			Principles of medication use during lactation
	2	GBS	Group B streptococcal infection in neonates; young infants; and pregnant women
			Microbiology and epidemiology of perinatal group B streptococcal infection
			Management of the infant whose mother has received group B streptococcal chemoprophylaxis
			Chemoprophylaxis for the prevention of neonatal group B streptococcal disease
	3	Hyperbilirubinemia	Diagnostic approach to the patient with jaundice or asymptomatic hyperbilirubinemia
			Clinical features and management of unconjugated hyperbilirubinemia in term and near term infants
			Pathogenesis and etiology of unconjugated hyperbilirubinemia in the newborn
			Classification and causes of jaundice or asymptomatic hyperbilirubinemia
	4	Physical Exam	Physical Examination of the newborn
			Multiple Births
			Large for Gestational Age Newborn
			Small for Gestational Age Newborn